Practical Nursing is recognized today as an integral part of the health care delivery system serving the patient's needs.

A Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) works under the supervision of a registered nurse or physician, assisting with the planning, implementation and evaluation of patient care.

The GST BOCES Practical Nursing Program offers a 1200-hour educational program consisting of classroom and clinical instruction.

You will be taught to function appropriately within the curative, preventative and rehabilitative aspects in different health care facilities throughout the area. Local hospitals and nursing homes serve as clinical settings.

Completion of this program of classroom instruction and clinical experience will qualify you to take the National Council Licensing Exam for Practical Nursing (NCLEX-PN). This course is registered with the NYS Education Department.

TEST OF ESSENTIAL ACADEMIC SKILLS (TEAS)
You will be tested in Reading, Math, English and Language usage. You MUST sign-up prior to testing.
