School libraries in the Greater Southern Tier BOCES School Library System have access to a variety of online databases from different funding sources. This booklet contains information on the databases that are:

- ◆ provided to schools at no cost
- ◆ available through additional discretionary funds added to Co-SER 508 by individual libraries*

(More than one district has to subscribe to these databases to meet the Co-SER guidelines.)

*see Subscription Options

All school libraries in our region have access to the Online Databases listed below and on pages 3-5 at no cost to the school.

NOVELNY is an electronic resource access project that enables libraries across New York State to give their communities online access to the full text of thousands of journals, newspapers and other references. Currently, the NOVELNY Pilot Project provides online access to several databases. These include:

CENGAGE-GALE

Health and Wellness Resource Center – available since January 2005, this is an upgrade from the previous Health Reference Center-Academic. A source for both medical care professionals and consumers concerning important current health information, Health and Wellness Resource Center contains over 800 full-text titles.

Business & Company Resources Center – available since May 2002. This comprehensive database brings together a wide variety of global business information including company profiles, as well as business magazines and newspapers. It contains full text from over 3,000 periodical titles.

InfoTrac Custom Newspapers – available since July 2003, offers over 150 full-text newspapers that include several New York State newspapers including the New York Times from 1995 to the present.

National Newspaper Index – available since July 2003, provides article citations from 1977 to present for the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Christian Science Monitor, Los Angeles Times and the Washington Post.

Twayne's Author Series – available since April 1, 2003, features the content of over 600 books that comprise three print series – United States Authors, English Authors and World Authors. This series is devoted to literary critical interpretation and discussion for readers ranging from high school students through college and above.

EBSCO

Primary Search – a collection of reference materials geared toward elementary and middle school age users. It contains 68 full-text titles. All full text articles are assigned a reading level indicator (Lexiles). The Searchasaurus interface to Primary Search is an animated interface with a dinosaur theme that encourages students to develop basic search methodologies. Primary Search also includes:

- ◆ More than 50 full text student reference books including Funk & Wagnalls New Encyclopedia and American Heritage® Children's Dictionary, 3rd Edition from Houghton Mifflin
- ◆ Full text of over 100 student pamphlets
- ◆ Encyclopedia of Animals
- ◆ Image Collection: 107,135 photos, maps and flags

GROLIER

Encyclopedia Americana Encyclopedia* – articles include links to further readings, a bibliography, selected full text articles, web page links, and links to related Encyclopedia Americana articles.

Grolier Multimedia Encyclopedia* – includes encyclopedia articles, news, timelines, quizzes and games, and research starters. It also includes an atlas and dictionary. Articles can be grouped by lexile level and are aligned to standards.

The New Book of Knowledge* – for middle grade students; includes literary selections, a timeline, projects and experiments, news, homework help and more.

PROQUEST

ProQuest Platinum* – Periodicals covering a broad range of material: business, education, general reference, health, language arts, sciences, social sciences, and many other curriculum-specific subject areas. Browseable subjects include arts and humanities; computers and Internet; education; environment; health; lifestyles and culture; politics and government; science and mathematics; social issues and policy; and sports and entertainment.

Current Issues are full text databases containing articles selected by our editors to provide you with an overview of various aspects of a topic. Articles are carefully selected to give you the information you need on a topic in the news today. Editors also locate reliable and authoritative websites to further your research.

◆ From Alternative Energy to Global Climate Change, Environmental Problems in Developing Countries to the Organic Food Movement, Current Issues: Environment provides comprehensive, compelling, and balanced coverage to engage students interest and enhance their understanding of environmental concerns.

- ◆ Consumers can turn to Current Issues: Health for information to enrich their understanding of issues at the leading edge of health and medicine.
- ◆ Inspired by the Reference Shelf print series, Current Issues: Reference Shelf Plus provides library users balanced examinations of the many social, scientific, political, and economic issues facing the world community today.

Full Descriptions and lists of topics are available at the following websites.

Since the first volume was published in 1934, H. W. Wilson's Junior Authors & Illustrators has been an essential source of information about the creators of books for children and young people. Now, all ten volumes in this series are available in a single database, delivering fast digital access to in-depth profiles, photographs, and bibliographies of works by and about authors and illustrators. The database contains over 2,100 profiles, with photos accompanying over 90% of the entries. The articles are presented in the first person and include lively anecdotes, important observations, accounts of each author and artist's career, and a bibliography of selected works by and about the subject. Authors and illustrators of fiction, poetry, and non-fiction are all covered. New profiles are added annually.

SCRLC South Central Regional Library Council

The South Central Regional Library Council (SCRLC) is one of nine multi-type library consortia in New York State. In 1998, SCRLC was chartered by the State of New York to identify, strengthen, and share library resources in the 14 counties of Allegany, Broome, Cayuga, Chemung, Chenango, Cortland, Delaware, Otsego, Schuyler, Seneca, Steuben, Tioga, Tompkins, and Yates.

SCRLC provides access to NewsBank database of regional and national newspapers and OCCLC First Search, an online reference search tool that delivers quality content from WorldCat and dozens of quality, respected databases of bibliographic and full-text content. Access to these databases is funded by the GST BOCES SLS.

Southern Tier Library System

The Southern Tier Library System, a member-driven regional consortium of public libraries, supports and strengthens its members through clearly defined, cost-effective services that make possible the coordination and sharing of resources, enabling all individuals in the five-county region to have equal access to excellent library service. STLS provides access to Chilton Library, Literature Resource Center, and Novelist. These subscription products are accessible 24 hours/day with a valid library card. If you do not have a library card, contact your local library.

Sharing the spirit of books and reading™

The mission of TeachingBooks is to generate enthusiasm for books and reading by bringing authors, illustrators and engaging resources about books for children and teens to every school, library and home. From one easy-to-use website, TeachingBooks makes instantly available original, in-studio movies of authors and illustrators, audio excerpts of professional book readings, guides to thousands of titles and a wealth of multimedia resources on children's and young adult literature. Our hope is that by utilizing TeachingBooks' multimedia resources, educators will better understand the spirit and personality behind books and discover exciting ways to share these insights with children and teens. Provided free of charge through the GST School Library System.

Electronic Books: Schools within our region also have access to a number of reference and professional ebooks from Gale Virtual Reference Library, Facts on File, and ASCD. Many of these books can be downloaded directly into the school’s catalog; contact the SLS for assistance in accessing these titles. Provided free of charge through the GST School Library System.

Recognized worldwide as the standard in online plagiarism prevention, Turnitin helps educators and students take full advantage of the Internet's educational potential. Used by thousands of institutions in over 80 countries, Turnitin's products promote originality in student work, improve student writing and research skills, encourage collaborative learning, and save valuable instructor time.

The system works as follows:

- ◆ First, a 'digital fingerprint' is made of the submitted document using a specially developed set of algorithms. • The document's 'fingerprint' is cross-referenced against the local database containing hundreds of thousands of papers.
- ◆ At the same time, automated web crawlers are released to scour the rest of the Internet for possible matches.
- ◆ Finally a custom, color-coded 'originality report' is completed with source links, for each paper.

CQ Researcher offers in-depth, non-biased coverage of today's most important issues. Each report is on a single topic—more than 12,000 words in text and extensive bibliographies. Each weekly issue provides up-to-date information on controversial subjects—reported by CQ's staff of experienced reporters. It covers a wide range of social, economic, political, and environmental issues and contains four expanded issues per year on topics such as War on Terrorism and Grade Inflation. Each report is broken down into specific sections for easy access to the information you need.

This extensive database goes back to 1991 AND affords immediate access to the newest CQ Researcher reports as they are published. Older reports are backfiled providing a continuously growing archive. Also, the index is available in both PDF and HTML formats.

CQ Researcher is divided into specific sections to guide research. Students can go directly to the section they need or read the entire report. In each report you will find the following:

- ◆ Abstract - Summary of the article (125 words)
- ◆ Overview - A 1,200-word introduction to the issue, plus two or three detailed pro-con discussions of the hottest debates relating to the subject (about 4,000 words total)
- ◆ Background - History of the issue (up to 2,500 words)
- ◆ Current Situation - The most recent events relating to the controversy (up to 1,500 words)
- ◆ Outlook - Long-range projections of where the issue is headed (700 words)
- ◆ Special Focus - Maps, graphs, tables, charts and up to three related articles
- ◆ Chronology - One-page timeline of the history of the topic
- ◆ Pro/Con - A one-page debate, with equal coverage of both sides
- ◆ Bibliography - Works cited in the article or consulted by the author in its production
- ◆ Next Step - Additional periodical readings to support further research
- ◆ Contacts - Information for contacting relevant organizations and associations
- ◆ Footnotes - Annotation citing external resources used within the article

Parents have a resource for helping their children do online research and complete school assignments. They can choose from the dozens of science activities for educational and creative rainy day pastimes.

Librarians, classroom teachers, and homeschoolers can use Exploring Nature to develop lesson plans for units on animals (mammals, birds, insects, spiders, sharks, fish, amphibians, reptiles, etc.), plants (wildflowers, trees, cacti, etc.), biomes (forests, deserts, oceans, polar regions, rain forests, wetlands, the tundra, etc.), adaptations (structure and function), farm animals, life cycles, food webs, ecology, the human body, genetics, space and the environment.

Exploring Nature Educational Resource is the proud recipient of the ALA Great Websites for Kids Award.

Pricing

- $25/year for an individual, librarian, classroom teacher, educator, or family home subscription (Small schools with under 300 students can subscribe as an individual)
- $50/year for a medium-sized school subscription with 300 to 1,000 students (School subscriptions also allow students to use the more extensive website from home)
- $100/year for larger schools with more than 1,000 students

Multiple schools within a district get a generous group discount. Pricing is calculated based on the individual school price above (using each individual school's enrollment to calculate its price) less a sliding discount – the more schools that join together – the bigger the discount!

Multiple school discount: 3-5 schools 20%, 6-10 schools 25%, 11-15 schools 30%, 16-20 schools 35%, 21-30 schools 40%, 31-40 schools 45%, 41+ schools 50%
